SEEKS THE NOMINATION FOR COUNTY ATTORNEY

Chas. C. Smith, Jr., life-long resident of Cameron, and attorney-at-law anounced to-day that he is a candidate for the office of County Attorney of Milam County. Mr. Smith, who is married and has two young daughters, attended the Cameron public schools and the University of Texas.

Mr. Smith, who was practicing law in Cameron at the outbreak of World War II, instead of waiting until he was drafted waived all claims to deferment and volunteered as a private in the Regular Army of the United States at Fort Sam Houston in August 1942. Following his release a short time later for physical disability he was employed by the Federal Government as an investigative agent and later by the Army Air Forces as contracts attorney. In May 1945 he went to Washington, D. C., as a special investigator and after several months duty there was ordered overseas on assignments in the Pacific Theatre. He returned to re-enter the practice of law in Cameron in January 1947.

Mr. Smith has assisted W. A. Morrison, the present County Attorney, during most of Mr. Morrison's five years in office as prosecutor, and thus has a close personal knowledge of the duties and requirements of the office. In this connection it will be remembered that Mr. Morrison has an outstanding record as prosecuting attorney in Texas in that he has never

Dr. Clifton G. Swift, county health officer, early Monday morning said that all precautions should be taken in the county and cities of the county to effectively forestall so far as possible, the spread of infantile paralysis.

Dr. Swift said: "The danger of the spread of the disease is definitely here. Too much emphasis cannot be placed on a cleanup and the spraying of all premises in the city. The machinery to do a thorough job has been set up and within a few days or at the earliest possible hour every citizen will be called upon to do his share."

Dr. Swift is in close touch with every possible development and his emphasis this morning on the danger and that the possibilities of the spread of the disease is definitely here, make doubly imperative that plans for the cleanup and the institution of all known precautions be done at once.

Dr. Denson whose diagnosis indicated such a symptom had earlier rejected the food poisoning theory. He said the child did not die from food poisoning and that definitely there were no symptoms of Polio or infantile paralysis.

Complete autopsy, he said had revealed Friedlander's baccilus which is better known to physicians as encephalitis.

RIGHT OF WAY SURVEY IS NOW AUTHORIZED

Texas Highway Commission has authorized right of way surveys at once on Highway 77 and through Milam county, it was announced here Saturday morning by County Judge Dan Tyson who released for publication a letter from State Engineer D. C. Greer.

This is the most important in series of developments on plans to reconstruct Highways 77 and 36 through Milam county and Stanley Swift, Chairman of the Good Roads Committee of the Chamber of Commerce was elated to have the good news.

The letter to Judge Tyson is as follows :

"As information we quote you Minute passed by the State Highway Commission on June 1, 1948.

"Whereas, in Milam County on U. S. Highway 77 and State Highway 36 the proper officials of Milam County have requested the improvement of the highways to modern standards of design and have pledged the procurement of the required right of way free of cost to the state and,

EDMOND DAUGHERTY FOR COUNTY TREASURER

Edmond Daugherty, widely known citizen of this county, is a candidate for the nomination for County Treasurer for Milam county, subject to the Democratic Primary to be held on Saturday, July 24.

Mr. Daugherty requested publication of his announcement in the Daily Herald and said that he had been greatly encouraged by pledges of support in all sections of the county.

He suffered a great misfortune some years ago in the loss of both legs and makes his way actively about on a specially constructed small wheel truck. His physical handicap has not dampened his spirit and sunny disposition and his friendly handclasp is bringing him many supporters who want to help him in his race for this county job.

Daugherty has been a resident of Milam county for nearly all his life and is well and favorably known. He has worked very hard and existed under great handicaps and has the spirit to succeed in anything he can undertake considering his handicap. He deserves much praise and every possible consideration.

He feels he is qualified to administer the office and it would give him a much needed job, one that would fit him well since he cannot perform duties possible to others.

Daugherty is making an active canvas. He has already visited a number of communities and says he will make a thorough campaign despite his handicaps.

He will greatly appreciate your vote and support in the July primary.

PROPERTY INSPECTION IS FIRST STEP HERE

The initial step in the Polio prevention fight was taken here early Wednesday when Boy Scouts in traditionalditional service to their community were distributing circulars instructing property owners what to do in the clean up.

Inspection will begin Thursday morning. Each property owner in the city will be given detailed instructions on what to do. Since the need is so great property owners were expected to start cleaning up immediately after the circulars were put out Wednesday.

Representatives of the Lions and Rotary Club are to meet at 1:30 p. m. to zone the city. There will be a committee for each zone. When these committees begin inspections Thursday they expect to find the property owners have followed the instructions contained in the circular distributed by the Boy Scouts on Wednesday.

People who have trucks and knapsack sprayers they can lend in the emergency are requested to get in touch with A. W. McCullin, chairman of the procurement committee.

Dr. C. G. Swift, general Chairman, met with the committees on Tuesday morning and the circular distribution was decided upon as the first step. Dr. Swift is closely supervising all details of the work as general chairman.

The inspection Thursday will be one of two such canvases. The town must be cleaned up before spraying begins. Haste is vital. Don't delay.

Spray fluid, a mixture of DDT and oil can be had at 25c per gallon at Mack's Oil Company. The spray is not ready but will be made up within 2 hours after receipt of DDT which was ordered Tuesday by P. W. Davis.

Mrs. Winn died at 12:30 a. m. Monday, June 14 in St. Edwards Hospital after a short illness.

Dick Batte, eldest of the children died many years ago. The daughter Jessie Lee Batte died about 20 years ago. She was at the time of her death Mrs. Mack Harvey.

Mrs. Dick Batte, widow of the son, lives in Cameron. In addition to R. L. Batte, Jr., prominent citizen here and native of this city, 7 grand children and 7 great grand children survive.

Pall bearers were Bryce Burnett, Fred Reno, E. O. Schiller, Joe C. Denson, J. C. Martin and L. F. Gohmert.

TEMPLE MEN INDICTED IN HOUSING FRAUDS

Charged with conspiring to violate the federal veterans housing law, Gordon Duncan and R. M. Newton of Temple were arrested here Tuesday and made bond of $5,000 each before U. S. Commissioner Walter Cocke at Waco.

Duncan is president of Duncan Homes, Inc., and Newton was secretary of the First Federal Savings and Loan association of Temple. His resignation was announced last night by Henry Blum, Sr., First Federal president.

Deputy U. S. Marshal T. P. McNamara arrested the two here late Tuesday morning, took them to Waco. Newton was represented by Byron Skelton, Temple attorney, and Duncan by Woody Zachery of Waco, former U. S. commissioner, now an attorney there.

Federal District Attorney Henry Moursund told the Telegram's Austin bureau that the indictment, returned at Austin Tuesday morning by the federal grand jury, included 12 counts in all, 11 in addition to the primary conspiracy charge.

Mr. Moursund also took a heavy swing at Drew Pearson, who mentioned the pending case in his radio broadcast Sunday night. "We've been considering this case ever since last fall, and Pearson had nothing to do with it. I had to get witnesses from all over the state down here Monday morning before the grand jury, and Pearson's remarks were made only the night before. It would have been remarkable if I could have gotten so many witnesses who had to be suppoenaed down here in such a short time after the Pearson broadcast. Mr. Pearson is a damned liar," Mr. Moursund said.—Temple Telegram.

FALLS COUNTY JUDGE WILL BE THE SPEAKER

The County Unit System as a more efficient method of handling the fiscal affairs of the county, long advocated here by those who have felt it would be especiall beneficial will be discussed at a county wide rally here on Tuesday night, June 22.

Stanley Swift, Chairman of the Good Roads Committee of the Chamber of Commerce has announced that Judge Fred Glass of Marlin will be the principal speaker.

The rally will be held in the stadium at Yoe High school where seating capacity is available in the open.

Judge Glass is a strong advocate of the Unit System as yet not fully understood in Milam. The unit system is important, advocates say, in view of the great need to build farm to market roads. The system enables concentration of finances applicable to any section of the county where the need is greatest. It applies modern methods and improvements badly needed in this county can more easily be had.

Judge Glass is an authority on the Unit System.

A county wide Good Roads Association has been organized but has not functioned.

JESTER HAS BETRAYED THE PEOPLE HE SAYS

WEST, June 15—Roger Q. Evans of Denison officially opened his campaign for governor here tonight with a pledge to fight to deliver Texas off what he called an "oil-soaked people's path" back to all the people of Texas.

In a speech for radio delivery, Evans told citizens of this little community who put his name on the ballot and paid his filing fee that their demands that he run for governor proved that "Texans are so disillusioned and so disappointed and so disgusted in the administration of the governor's office that they are demanding a change."

Evans never called Gov. Beauford H. Jester by name, but one punch after another was unquestionably leveled at the re-election seeking governor.

Evans referred to Jester's "people's path" as "mythical, fabulous fiction."

"It wasn't a broad, smooth path—a highway for everybody. It wasn't the route to the promised land. No, my friends, the 'people's path' we soon learned was so oil-soaked, so mired up with egotism and selfish interest, that plain, foot-slogging Texans—everyday folks like you and me—feared to travel its twisting course. We knew it was ambushed with danger. We found out mighty soon that it didn't lead to the high hills of prosperity and security but to the deadly quicksands of corporate interests," Evans said.

He promised to fight to stop the "stripping" of natural resources and to channel them to the benefit "of all people to make secure and safe the future of every Texan."

He pledged to farmers a fight for the best soil conservation program of any state . . . to teachers, the best pay of any state . . . to veterans, a bonus that he said is "rightfully" theirs.

Don't tell me—don't even try to tell me—that it's un-Texan for a Texas veteran to ask for what is rightfully his," he declared.

(He referred to Jester's having once tagged veterans' state bonus demands as "un-Texan." Evans has authorized and pushed veterans bonus bills in the past two Texas legislatures).

EMANCIPATION DAY PROGRAM ELABORATE

Negroes in Cameron are planning a mammoth celebration on June 19th. The Emancipation Day activities will center at the Negro Park on West 3rd Street.

The celebration will be under the direction of the Association and committees are working to arrange a program that will eclipse anything that has occured in the past.

One of the big features of the program will be a morning parade through the negro sections of the city and through the business areas of the city. The program includes a number of events that will appeal to all for entertainment.

June 19th falls on Saturday this year. This will give the celebrants two days if they include vacation from their duties the Sunday to follow the Emancipation Day date.

V. T. Heron, pastor of Bethel AME Church will be the speaker of the day and Mrs. Greer will be in charge of the ceremonies.

Rev. and Mrs. E. O. Harrell of Livingston were Cameron visitors recently. He was formerly pastor for the Presbyterian church of Cameron. Their many friends welcome their visits.

The Senator said that he was well pleased with the support he is receiving. He has always been popular with the people of this county and has done a great deal for the people here, totally in the matter of roads and highways. He was primarily responsible for the bridge across Little River.

HIGHEST BIDDER WILL GET FALL PICKERS

AUSTIN, June 11—"The damndest fight for cotton pickers and the highest wages ever paid will take place in Texas in 1948," if Texas fails to secure Mexican nationals labor, executive secretary Jay C. Stilley of the Texas Cotton Ginners' association has warned member ginners.

There was swift reaction on the part of state governmental agencies today as officials learned that Stilley's letter, dated June 7, had become public information.

Stilley and the cotton ginners association recently gained favorable attention from the Mexican and Texas governments by presenting the so-called "Stilley plan" to eliminate discrimination against Latin Americans.

Texas is on Mexico's "black list" with regard to securing labor from that country to help harvest Texas crops. The Mexican government has said it will not permit Texans to contract for Mexican labor until it is satisfied there will be no more discrimination against the Mexican people.

Stilley's most recent circular to association members concerning the Mexican labor situation said in part:

"With one-third of the labor not available that we had last year, it will mean that prices for picking (cotton) will go sky high. There is no doubt also that we will have comparative holdings from both Arkansas they will not be able to secure Mexicans and Mississippi for our workers since can nationals this year . . .

"Actually, at the present time, in my opinion, the chances are just 5 to 1 that we will not have Mexican nationals to work in our cotton fields this year . . .

"It comes to a pretty bad place in our industry when we must cater to cotton pickers. I am sure that none of you specifically desire a situation like this to occur any more than I do, but I can assure you that the chances are very slight at the present time of securing Mexican national labor; and if we don't secure this labor, the damndest fight for cotton pickers and the highest wages ever paid will take place in Texas in 1948."

DRAFT BILL GOES TO HOUSE IN CONGRESS

WASHINGTON, June 10 — Tired and almost talked-out, the senate today passed a bill to draft men 19 through 25 into military service. The vote was 78 to 10.

Day and night since Monday, talking in relays, the senators had debated the bill which would:

1. Require all men 19 through 25 to register with a local draft board.

2. Permit the drafting of those 19 through 25 for two years in the armed services, here or abroad.

3. Let 18-year-olds volunteer for one year's service, thus avoiding a two-year draft when they reached 19.

4. Require a special registration for doctors and dentists up to 45 although—to avoid stripping communities of medical service—they could not be drafted without special action of their draft boards.

Military leaders figure two out of every three single, non-veterans in the 19 through 25 age group would be drafted under the senate bill.

But this senate passed bill is not law and won't be unless, and until, the house also approves.

The house may act next week, and it seems sure to but—

There's an outside chance that, in the rush to finish the year's work by next weekend, the house may skip the draft bill altogether.

That would kill the draft for 1948 unless congress came back after the political conventions.

THUNDER SHOWERS IN THE WEATHER PICTURE

(From the Daily)

Texas was sweltering under severe temperatures Thursday and for the past few days has had unseasonable weather with temperatures well over a hundred.

Rain here is essential to corn crops.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

How to Live Longer

Someone asked Pappy Miller last week how he stayed so spry at ninety. Pappy told him:

"Well, sir—when I work, I work hard. When I eat, I eat loose. When I think, I go to sleep."

According to Doc Hollister, that formula isn't far amiss. "Hard work," says Doc, "never wore out anyone before his time, providing he knew how and when to relax."

Doc himself works overtime, with his daytime patients at the office, and his evening calls. And when he gets home he takes it easy with a mellow glass of beer and chats with the missus until it's time to go to bed.

From where I sit, relaxing is a fine art—especially in these tense, fast-moving times. And there's nothing like a temperate glass of beer—enjoyed with pleasant company—to restore that easy frame of mind that one needs after a hard day's work.

R. L. BATTE PLEASED OVER FLOOD CONTROL

R. L. Batte, largest of the bottom planters and head of the Batte industries here, and a pioneer in advocating flood control, was pleased to have a telegram Friday morning from Senator Tom Connally announcing the half million dollar appropriation for the Miller Springs Dam.

Mr. Batte telephoned the Daily Herald around noon Friday to make favorable comment on the development in the conference committee of the House and Senate that resulted in agreement on the Miller Springs Dam appropriation. The initial money is only a beginning, since the dam will cost about 15 million dollars.

With almost a life time of experience with Little River Floods, Mr. Batte has been very helpful to the Brazos Board in the development of flood control plans on the great Texas River. His help and interest led Senator Connally to advise Mr. Batte of the welcome turn of affairs.

The great watershed of Little River makes of it the largest tributary of the Brazos. Mr. Batte visualizes the untold benefits in reclaimed lands in the rich bottoms and the protection of planters who have witnessed the toll taken by the most destructive stream in the United States. He also appreciates the conservation possibilities over the great river systems and the proper use of the water.

TRUMAN FLAYS SOLONS IN SPOKANE ADDRESS

SPOKANE, Wash., June 9—President Truman today called the 80th Congress the "worst" in American history, but demanded it stay in session to legislate for housing and against inflation.

Boosting up the tempo of his Western tour with spirited attacks on the Republican-controlled Senate and House, the Chief Executive carried his campaign into the Pacific Northwest.

In rapid-fire speeches to a labor union and an audience in midtown Sopkane, Wash., Mr. Truman blasted Congress for hampering his program for price controls and housing, and accused Congress of blocking his efforts to put across a program to benefit the West.

"If you don't do something about it, you don't deserve to get anything," he said after hurling barbs at the "chairmen of key committees," who, he said, were throwing obstacles in the path of progress.

The President, in a surprise appearance, urged the national convention of Communication Workers of America, Independent, to throw Republican Senators, and Congressmen out of office in the November elections.

"I understand that you are not very happy over the labor act of 1948," he told the union assemblage.

"Your only remedy is November, 1948, and if you continue that law in effect that is your fault and not mine because I didn't want it."

Miss Lilian Atkinson was a week end guest of her brother, Hubert Atkinson and family at Maysfield.

38 Attend Luncheon Given By Save The Child Foundation

Thirty-eight people attended the Save the Children Federation Luncheon at the Milam Coffee Shop Friday, June 4th. The Cameron group was joined by several from Rockdale.

Miss Mary Randolph, chairman of the Milam County Federation welcomed the guests and introduced the speaker, Mrs. J. R. Hillman, area director of Save the Children Federation with headquarters in Bryan, who gave a very interesting and instructive talk on "Save the Children Federation." She gave it's history and some of it's activities at home and aboard.

The address for this occasion was given by Mrs. J. L. Brock of Bryan. She is a leader in religious, civic and social affairs and is especially interested in child welfare. She is chairman of the Promotion Committee of the SCF in Bryan and is a member of the State Board. Mrs. Brock was most inspiring as she spoke on "What the Communities Owe the Children." She stressed the fact that every child has a right to feel secure and it is the citizens of a community working through such organizations as SCF that can help give him this feeling of security.

This is the first luncheon that the Federation has sponsored but it hopes to make it an annual affair with many more in attendance.

Mrs. James McMillian, accompanied by Mrs. Effie White Cox of Dallas visited Mrs. Rosa Kemp Adams for the week end. Mrs. Cox is a daughter of a former Baptist minister here, and will be remembered as Miss Effie White.

foot concrete spillway section and a 793-foot non-overflow concrete section, plus earth structures extending the total length of 9,986 feet.

Army engineers rate the Miller Springs dam as essential to any workable flood control program for the Barzos river watershed. The Leon is the major stream pouring into the Little river, which has for decades jammed vast quantities of flood water into the Brazos.

The dam will also provide water for irrigation purposes, and many observers believe the water it will make available will give this section of Texas the greatest impetus it has ever known.

CAN ENLIST AND AVOID NATIONAL DRAFT LAW

Within the very near future young men of draft age will have to decide promptly whether they want to put in two years of training—including possible overseas service—under the draft law, or whether they prefer to remain at home and serve in an organization such as the National Guard. If they delay, the decision will be made for them by the Government.

That blunt warning was contained in a statement which Captain Rudolph Michalka reported he received from Major General K. L. Berry this week.

In his statement, which was addressed to Commanding Officers of all National Guard units in Texas, the Adjutant General urged that men in the draft age bracket be informed at once of the situation facing them. He said in part:

"Do the young men of militia age in your community want a career at home—college, business, profession, athletics?

Or do they want to be drafted into Federal Service for two years and sent with our occupation troops all over the world?

They are going to have to make a decision on this question mighty soon. Or it will be made for them by the Government.

I believe the Selective Service Bill will soon be passed by Congress. I believe it will contain provisions that any man between 19 and 25 inclusive will be subject to Army duty for two years—except those who have joined an organized unit of a reserve component before the bill is passed.

I believe that in all fairness to our young men they and their parents should be told these things. It is our duty to tell them.

The National Guard offers an opportunity for a career at home under the provisions of the proposed Bill. While some of their buddies are going to camps which will be opened up all over the country, the fellows who join the National Guard can play on their school and college teams, continue their studies, make headway in business and live with their families.

The "handwriting is on the wall." The decision is important—the time is short.

Capt. Michalka said he was glad to pass along the information to men of draft age in the area. He added that enlistments are being accepted in Battery C here, and anyone interested should contact him on week days at the Cameron Machine Shop.

The smooth, flowing lines of the 1949 Ford passenger cars are accented by the simplicity of the air-scoop grille. Fresh air for the pressurized ventilation system also enters through the grille.

BANKS ARE URGED TO FINANCE FARMERS

Farming and farmers should attract banking credits commensurate with other engagements in America's business and banks were urged to join more wholeheartedly in farmer problems in this advanced era of agricultural production said William A. Faught of the Federal Reserve Bank in Dallas in an address to guests at the J. I. Case convention here Thursday night sponsored by the Maysfield Mercantile Company.

The meeting held for the district under which the agency here is operating was held at the new plant of the J. I. Case dealer. J. C. Freeman, President of the Maysfield Mercantile Company, as host gave a brief outline of his company. It was organized in 1908 and incorporated in 1913. The company moved from Maysfield when the new plant was completed here.

L. L. Smith, manager of the Cameron Chamber of Commerce talked about the Magic Soil Belt of which Milam county is the center in his address of wolcome to the visitors Production opportunities are unlimited with proper cultivation, he said.

The banquet was served by the women of the Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church of Maysfield.

Some 50 were present and they included bankers as well as J. I. Case dealers. Visitors were noted from Corsicana, Lufkin, Waco, Temple, Cameron, Brady, Mart, Hillsboro, building of the dam would be carried through to completion.

A few backers of the project here feared that the measure might "die" in the closing rush of congress, as many bills are doing. However, so many essential army functions are included in the measure, plus so many projects in which individual congressmen are vitally interested, that it was believed certain senate and house approval of the bill will come qucikly. No further committee work is necessary .

As planned by the army engineers, the Miller Springs project when finally completed will cost more than $15,000,000.

The dam site is on the Leon river about three miles north of Belton and seven miles southwest of Temple. The lake impounded by the dam will eventually cover parts of Both Bell and Coryell counties. No accurate estimate as to the total extent of the lake is yet available, but the proposed storage capacity of the dam is 722,000 acre feet.

The dam will be of concrete and earth construction, including an 873-

Green Tomatoe Prices Drop Here; Ripes Bringing Better

Green tomato prices took a tumble here Thursday and early Friday the local packers were paying 6c per pound for No. 1 and one a a half cents for No. 2.

There was no explanation of the crash on green tomatoes. Two days after the market opened greens went to 5c per pound and re-acted upupwards a few days later to 10c per pound.

Heat Relief Here Is Uncertain; Showers Seem Far Away

Relief from hot weather seemed far away in Cameron Monday despite the early morning overcast sky.

Despite the fact that it was cooler in the Panhandle and that some rain had fallen in scattered areas of North Texas, moisture from the skies seemed out of the picture here.

The drouth is becoming serious and unless rain comes within a few days corn crops will be lost. No weather change was expected here before late Monday night or Tuesday, if at all. The prospect is very bad.

A&M President, Gib Gilchrist Is Rotary Speaker Here

"How Big Is Texas A&M" was the subject of an interesting address here Wednesday by Gib Gilchrist, President of the College.

President Gilchrist was brought to Cameron by F. G. Blake who was program chairman for the day.

He employed considerable detail to give the Rotarians and their guests a view of the College and all its branches. He said that if the College Amendment now being attacked in the courts is allowed to function as a building stimulus to state Schools, that A&M will be permited to get 5 million for expansion.

Texas A&M is the largest agricultural and mechanical college in the world.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Ronshausen and two daughters, Martyn and Frances, of Port Arthur spent Sunday here with her father, William R. Rogers and left for a ten days visit in New Mexico and up into Ariz. They will return by Kerrville where they will place Marlyn in a girl's camp for three weeks.

Mrs. Alva Sanders Installed As Worthy Matron Eastern Star

Mrs. Alva Sanders was installed as Worthy Matron in a colorful OES Ceremony at the Masonic Hall, Thursday night, June 3.

The setting chosen by Mrs. Sanders for her installation was based on the Rainbow theme. A large rainbow placed in front of her station was centered with an arrangement of salmon-pink gladioli. The altar was draped with white satin and ivy. Each color station carried tinted gladioli, the flower of Mrs. Sanders' choice.

The ceremony opened with Mrs. Roy Hensley as retiring Matron greeting members and friends. Assisted by Mrs. T. E. Crump, and Mrs. Jesse Brock the Installing officers selected by Mrs. Sanders were presented. Mrs. W. G. Harsha sang "Star Of The East" preceding the ritualistic service.

Mrs. Sanders wore a full floor length dress of nile green brocaded sheer, adorned only with a chartreuse orchid. Her message told of the Rainbow theme and her basis for selecting Love and Service as her motto for the year, and a few words directed to each officer installed. At the conclusion Miss Carolyn Longley of Giddings sang "Perfect Day."

Mrs. Jeff T. Kemp appropriately presented gifts wrapped in colors of the rainbow for Mrs. Sanders to her Installing officers and those who assisted. Mrs. Kemp was then presented in the East where Mrs. Sanders paid her a surprise honor conferred by the Chapter of Chaplain Emeritus. Mrs. Kemp was given a white Bible with her name, title and chapter inscribed in gold, in recognition of her 35 years of interest and devotion to the Chapter.

After a retiring march, Mrs. Sanders and Mr. W. E. Kuehl, Worthy Patron and other officers greeted some eighty visitors, registered by Miss Delphya Scott in the dining room. Each guest was presented a napkin by Mrs. Sander's daughter, Carol Ann and niece, Patsy Jane which bore the name of the Worthy Matron and Worthy Patron for 1948.

The dining table was set against an ivy draped wall, covered with green celophane and centered with another rainbow and a reflector which bore the motto: "Love and Service" in gilded letters. Yellow centered glads and white tapers completed the setting. Mrs. Marvin Sanders of San Antonio presided at the punch bowl serving lime sherbert with ginger ale, cake squares, decorated mints and nuts.

DR. NEWTON WILL BE HOME AFTER JULY 6

AUSTIN, June 11 — Dr. W. R. Newton of Cameron has donated another pint of blood and shortened his penitentiary sentence by another 30 days.

Governor Beauford H. Jester today granted the physician his fourth 30-day reduction of sentence for giving approximately a pint of blood to indigent patients at the M. D. Anderson Hospital for Cancer Research at Houston.

Fifteen other convicts who donated like amounts to the cancer research hospital also were given 30-day commutations. The three previous commutations granted Dr. Newton were for donating blood for transfusion to fellow-prisoners.

Under a long-established practice, each donation of blood brings a 30-day reduction in sentence. Today's were recommended by Prison Manager O. B. Ellis and the Board of Pardons and Paroles.

The new reduction means that Dr. Newton, convicted of assault to murder on Dr. Roy L. Hunt of Littlefield in 1942, may be discharged as a prisoner July 6, if he has accumulated all possible good credits.

Dr. Newton started serving a 2-year sentence Aug. 1, 1947.

MEETING CALLED FOR MONDAY NIGHT HERE

(From the Daily)

Cameron was finally getting around to a clean-up and a thorough spraying of the city with DDT.

A meeting has been called for Monday night at the Chamber of Commerce, it was announced by L. G. Smith, manager. Health officers and newspaper men are on the invited list.

A delegation took advantage of the first opportunity to visit with Temple authorities and so on Friday afternoon held a long conference there to get all details on the experiences of that city where admittedly some mistakes were made. Cameron will not make those mistakes Mr. Smith said that the Cameron authorities were deeply grateful for the information received in Temple.

Those who were in Temple Friday were Dr. C. G. Swift, county health officer, L. G. Smith, Manager of the Chamber of Commerce, P. W. Davis and D. S. Wimberly, sanitarian.

How the campaign will be waged here will be decided upon Monday night. A brief outline given by Mr. Smith early Saturday calls for a thorough inspection with charts made showing spots and areas needing immediate attention. This method will bring the entire city into focus. Then property owners will be notified what to do.

Civic organizations are to be asked to co-operate, each being responsible for given areas.

In the business districts one day will be set aside to close. Mr. Smith said perhaps Thursday of next week and if not that day, Friday will be named. It was pointed out that a spraying machine to be operated by Mr. Davis will be used for a thorough, good job. It was also explained that before spraying or dusting can be done with good effect that a cleanup must come first.

The people are greatly encouraged to know that such a move is under way here.

They call the newest modes in women's clothes the "New Look." But to men it doesn't call for a second look.

THOROUGH JOB WILL BE DONE IN CAMERON

(From the Daily)

Every possible emphasis was being placed on the meeting at 7:30 p. m. to-night at the Chamber of Commerce because of the prevalence of Polio, or infantile paralysis and the immediate danger of its occurence in this county.

Health officials and press representatives have been included in the invitation to the conference.

Dr. C. G. Swift, county health officer, will be at the meeting to outline what should be done in the county as a whole and will advise on plans for the city of Cameron where a thorough job of clean up and spraying is planned.

Dr. T. E. Crump, city health officer and Dr. Freeman, head of the Milam County Health unit, and D. S. Wimberly, Sanitarian will be at the meeting.

L. G. Smith, manager of the Chamber of Commerce, was very active in arranging details of the meeting.

A thorough organization is planned. First an inspection will be made and each property owner will be told what to do with his premises and after that a check will be made to make certain that all prescribed precautions have been taken. Then will follow the spraying job which must be financed and will require special equipment.

had a case reversed by the higher Court at Austin for error having been committed in trial Court proceedings.

Mr. Smith has requested that the Herald print the following signed statement submitted by him:

"The office prosecuting attorney in Texas has traditionally been held by younger men; and every one agrees that it demands a vigorous and forceful approach. The prosecuting attorney sets the policy for law enforcement in his County and the surest way to prevent crime and to serve notice on law violators that criminal activity will not be tolerated is to place in this office a man strong enough to cope with those who break the law habitually. I know that the people of this county favor a policy of strong law enforcement; and I believe that by virtue of my background, experience and temperament I can give them what they want and deserve.

"The only other announced candidate for this office occupied the same during the war years for two full terms, lacking but three months. He was appointed when Bill Morrison resigned to enter the Army. When Bill returned after three years service overseas he did not say to him, "Bill, here is your pre-War job back, which was given to me when you joined the Army", and which would have been in keeping with the spirit of the Federal law requiring private employers to give veterans their old jobs back. Instead, he kept on holding the position and opposed Bill in the July Primary in 1946. I say that the people of Milam County by defeating him three to one at that election repudiated his record in office and censured his conduct.

"By asking you for this office again he gives you the right to examine his record.

"Do not forget that it was the laxity of his war-time administration which provoked the newspaper comment, 'Society is down on her knees in the street, with blood on her face'!

"Do not forget that, even after he was defeated and his term had expired, he continued to occupy an office in the Court House until finally he was requested to vacate by the Commissioners' Court!

"Do not forget that in the course of his defense in a recent case he made an objection based upon a statute of the law which the Legislature had repealed more than twenty years before! Are you not entitled to a prosecutor who reads the law more often than once every twenty years?

"The mere fact that a man charged with committing a crime has money enough to hire a strong law firm to represent him will not guarantee him a suspended sentence or a token punishment so long as I am County Attorney. I shall endeavor at all times to live up to my idea of a good prosecutor—FIRM BUT FAIR.

"My opponent had his chance during his forty-five months in office. I now ask you to give me my chance."

Sincerely yours,
Chas. C. Smith, Jr.

Food Poisoning Blamed For Death Child Stricken Here

MARLIN, June 13—Doctors today attributed the death here this morning of David Dolph, 2, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Dolph of Dallas, to acute food poisoning.

Polio had earlier been suspected.

The child became ill late Friday afternoon in Cameron, where he and his parents were visiting relatives. Kept alive by artificial respiration after his condition became critical, he was carried by ambulance to a Marlin hospital to be placed in an iron lung. He died at 8 a. m.

Both Dr. Neil Buie and Dr. T. G. Glass, Falls County health officer, listed acute food poisoning as the cause of death. Tetanus was also suspected.

Burial is to be in Dallas.

DAVID DOLPH—

Hospital for treatment and around 7:30 on Sunday was taken by ambulance to Marlin. He died around 9:15 a. m.

Dr. John Lane Baskin and Dr. T. Leland Denson were called Saturday afternoon. In their examination they admitted the possibility of food poisoning.

Dr. Baskin said here Monday morning the child had acute infection involving the brain and spinal column and perhaps the central nerve system. These symptoms are frequently present in acute infantile paralysis cases, he said. Dr. Baskin was not in Marlin and could not say what diagnosis had been made there.

It was understood that doctors at the Buie sanitarium had been inclined to feel that the child had died of food poisoning. Dr. Baskin explained that this type ailment is botulism, an acute type of food poisoning.

Dr. Baskin at 10 a. m. said he doubted if final satisfactory determination had as yet been made of the exact causes of the child's death.

The death of David caused some alarm here and rumors were spread that he had died of Infantile Paralysis, contracted here. The Daily Herald, after considerable inquiry developed the facts as printed above.

Funeral services were being held in Dallas Monday.

Mrs. Willa Mae David, grandmother of David Dolph, is the former Miss Willa Mae Ledbetter who lived in Cameron and who is a cousin of the late Drs. Tom and John Denson, a cousin also of Dr. T. Leland Denson, Mrs. Eber Flinn and Mrs. Roy Baskin, Sr.

To All Citizens of the 65th District

DO YOU WANT YOUR DISTRICT ABOLISHED?

In my opening announcement I made the following statements in regards to re-districting. "I am in favor of redistricting if it does not take away the right of the people in our district to have a voice in their government; therefore I shall do everything in my power to keep our representation in our government. I believe it is the duty of the Legislature to redistrict the state as provided in the Constitution and that no other method is necessary. As a member of the Legislature I shall work to keep our District like the people want it and to preserve everything in it."

I now reprint part of an article appearing in The Cameron Enterprise, Thursday, February 12, 1948, where Mr. Lehman, asks for re-election. Quote "IN ALL PROBABILITY IF THE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT CARRIES WHICH IS TO BE VOTED ON IN NOVEMBER, THERE WILL BE NO 65TH FLOTORIAL DISTRICT BECAUSE A BOARD APPOINTED BY THE GOVERNOR WILL RE-DISTRICT THE STATE" End Quote. Our constitution says it is the duty of the Legislature to do this. Why then should a board be appointed to do this? Why does Mr. Lehman want to shirk this responsibility? Now you the people must decide, a vote for Frank M. Haley, is a vote for the 65th Flotorial District and preserving everything in the district. Remember your Representative is your direct contact with your state government, and you can not afford to lose this right.

OLD AGE PENSION, AID FOR THE BLIND AND DEPENDENT CHILDREN.

I have proposed that we pay our aged people the full $50.00 per month pension they are entitled to, that we abolish the $35,000,000.00, ceiling that is now in effect on this fund. That we increase our aid to the blind and the needy children.

FARM TO MARKET ROADS, RURAL ROAD AID.

We must get a sound farm to market road program underway that will benefit the majority of the people, here we should start by getting all the Rural School bus routes hard surfaced, then the Mail routes and so on down the line until we have accomplished our goal.

RURAL SCHOOL AID, TEACHERS SALARIES, VETERANS BONUS.

The recent publicity given our School Aid program shows how inadaquate this program is. Surely it should not be necessary to borrow money to pay our teachers salaries. The base pay for Teachers should be increased so as to encourage young teachers to follow the profession, as our need for teachers becomes greater each year. We can not afford to forget our Veterans, a bonus bill should be submitted to the people for their approval.

PRISON SYSTEM, NATURAL RESOURCE TAX.

Our Prison Board has asked for funds to rebuild our prison system, if you are aware of the conditions that now exist you can readily see why we should all support this movement.

I favor a natural resource tax in order that we may do the things that are vital to our district and state, also that we may abolish many of the now existing taxes that are paid directly by the people.

I shall consider it an Honor to serve you as your Representative and will endeavor at all times to act only for the majority of the people. I will appreciate anything that you can do in my behalf, in helping me to attain this office.

Sincerely Your Friend,

Frank M. Haley,

Candidate for

Flotorial Representative 65th District
Milam, Lee and Burleson Counties.
